

Here's a picture of the 2 boys that could not live together! They couldn't be anywhere near each other inside or out without a fight breaking out... Aidan would search out and attack Donovan. One or the other would have to be in a crate or gated off in another room. A lot of people said the only thing to do would be to re-home one of them (or worse).

I was at a loss about what to do. I love my fur kids and didn't want to have to give one of them up if there was any way their problem could be worked out.

The flower essences you made up for each of them has been a miracle. Aidan is so much more relaxed and less bossy all around. And Donovan is no longer hiding in corners or under tables. They play together out in the yard now, and play and sleep together in the house too!

Mother (nature) knows best. :o)

Thanks so much!

p.s. Rowan says hi too!
